

KILLOWEN BARÁNTÚIL COGNAC CASK

3YR SINGLE POT IRISH WHISKEY

MOURNE MOUNTAINS, IRELAND

Meaning authentic or trustworthy, the Gaelic term Barántúil sums up Killowen's ethos perfectly. Taking the "practice what you preach" approach, this tiny distillery creates complex Irish whiskies with integrity and transparency. This Single Pot Irish Whiskey aged in a single cognac cask made of American Oak is an exclusive release for the U.S. and was a favorite among the distillery owners. The grains that comprise this mash bill were measured by the sack just like they used to be. 91.7% of which is sourced locally while the Marris Otter Barley was imported from England. At 3 years of age this cask strength whiskies aromas leap from the glass with white grape, vanilla, and fresh flowers. Waves of vanilla bean, marzipan, pastry cream, and lemon cake follow with rich complexity.

SIZE
375ML

ALCOHOL
61% ABV CASK STRENGTH

AVERAGE AGE
3 YEARS

ADJUSTMENT
NON-CHILL FILTERED / NO ARTIFICIAL COLORING

STILL TYPES
COPPER POT

WHISKY SOURCE
COUNTY LOUTH

STYLE
SINGLE POT IRISH WHISKY

BOTTLES FOR THE US
480 BOTTLES

BARRELS USED TO AGE
200L COGNAC CASK MADE OF AMERICAN OAK

FERMENTATION
COMBINATION OF WILD AND CULTIVATED YEAST

MASH BILL
MALTED BARLEY, UNMALTED BARLEY, MALTED MARRIS OTTER BARLEY, OATS, WHEAT

KILLOWEN SMALL BATCH IRISH DISTILLERY

Killowen is referred to by its fans as a "true distillery." Located in the heart of the Mourne Mountains in County Down, Brendan Cartey opened this tiny distillery with two artisanal copper pot stills, named Christoir and Broc. Using worm tub condensers, these direct fire stills create a spirit that embraces the traditions of a bygone era for Irish Whisky while being undeniably contemporary. Killowen is the stuff of whisky making legend and are poised to redefine the parameters of what Irish Whisky can be

