

KI NO BI EDITION K

KYOTO, JAPAN

Ki No Bi's Edition K is the result of a one-of-a-kind partnership with independent scotch whisky distillers Kilchoman. Located on the small Hebridean island of Islay off the western coast of Scotland, Kilchoman is a small scale, farm-based distillery known for peated whisky made from the barley that they grow. This unique release is Kyoto Distilling's Ki No Bi Kyoto Dry Gin matured in ex-bourbon barrels that previously contained Kilchoman's peated malt for just shy of a year. The result is an incredibly special barrel aged gin that displays all the smokey complexity of Kilchoman and marries it with Ki No Bi's own harmonious botanical nuance.

KYOTO DISTILLING

Kyoto Distillery is Japan's first dedicated artisanal gin distillery and currently the only distillery in Kyoto. Located in the southern part of the city, the distillery sources their water from the famed Fushimi region which is tremendously respected for their delicate and delicious brewing water. The aim is simple: to produce the best dry gin, utilizing fresh, local botanicals wherever possible. Every element of the final product should be completely authentic, from the local sourcing of the ingredients through to the design, and craftsmanship of the packaging.
